Guest Night – Ed Walton and Dave Malamet attended our June 28th guest night. Ed was a guest of Tom Ferguson and Dave, visiting us for the third time, found us through our website. Both guests were singing the lead part. Eleanor Fox hosted break time with an assist by JoAnn D'Andrea. Break time allowed us to get acquainted and do some gang singing with our guests.

ReMEMber - MEMbership begins with ME

4th Annual Middletown Independence Day Parade – Eleven Squires sang from our farm wagon to the festive crowds lining Veteran's Highway and Trenton Road in Middletown, Bucks County. Dave Malamet, a new member prospect, sang with us for his first time gig! New this year, "street" runners were used to hand out about 400 flyers. Thank you to Dot and Dave Borton and Steve Gold for this vital effort. Also new this year was the use of Dave Borton's work vehicle to take advantage of the on-board inverter to power the speaker system, which eliminated the awful noise of the gas-powered generator from prior parade appearances. Also, riding the wagon was Eleanor Fox, with Gus and Nancy Cales. Gus was in his Marine Corp League uniform and stood at the front of wagon to greet and salute the crowds. In the parade lineup, we were between William Penn Fire Co. 77 and VFW Post #148 (Langhorne). The pleasant weather and large crowds added to the festivities.

*Happy Birthday for the Month of July to:
Glen Childers (19)*
