“Ready, Set, Sing!” – On the third evening of Free Singing Lessons, John Steckowich returned. Kenny Hankin continued to present the basics of vocalization. After lessons, John hung out with us and did some gang singing with us. The final evening of “Ready, Set, Sing!” is Tuesday Nov 22, when the students get to sing with us to an audience (their friends and family) and enjoy our hospitality. By good fortune, Nov 22nd is also a planned Guest Night for the chapter, so any guests you bring will observe what new singers can bring to the barbershop harmony experience.

Veterans Day, November 10, 2016 – On Veterans Day we mark the day with celebration, honoring America’s veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

This holiday started as a day to reflect upon the heroism of those who died in our country’s service, and was originally called Armistice Day. It fell on November 11 because that is the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I. In 1954, the holiday was changed to “Veterans Day” in order to account for all veterans in all wars.

Just Sayin' –Don't mess with old people.

An elderly man from Walled Lake, Michigan, was going up to bed, when his wife told him that he'd left the light on in the garden shed, which she could see from the bedroom window. George opened the back door to go turnoff the light, but saw that there were people in the shed stealing things. He phoned the police, who asked, "Is someone in your house?" He said, "No, but some people are breaking into my garden shed and stealing from me."

Then the police dispatcher said, "All patrols are busy, you should lock your doors and an officer will be along when one is available" George said, "Okay." He hung up the phone and counted to 30. Then he phoned the police again. "Hello, I just called you a few seconds ago because there were people stealing things from my shed. Well, you don't have to worry about them now because I just shot and killed them both; the dogs are eating them right now," and he hung up.

Within five minutes, six Police Cars, a SWAT Team, a Helicopter, two Fire Trucks, a Paramedic and an Ambulance showed up at the Phillips' residence, and caught the burglars red-handed. One of the Policemen said to George, "I thought you said that you'd shot them!"

George said, "I thought you said there was nobody available!" (True Story)
