A patriotic musical revue with the
Denver MountainAires Barbershop Chorus
and “Andrews Sisters” tribute trio
Reveille 3

This hot trio has been bringing their cool nostalgia to packed performances across Colorado since 2009. Passionately inspired by the Swing Era of America’s “greatest generation,” using letters inspired by personal writings during WW II, “Letters from Home” is an entertaining reflection back to a time of honor, sacrifice, and pride for the American people. It’s a story about the changing lives of three ladies, woven with narrations of love lost and found, a yearning for a return to a normal life, and the strength and determination of US citizens helping with the war efforts.
